

OK Hitchhikers

Cedar Oaks RV - Grove
October 8-11, 2009

The News:

The Barratieres, Callahans, Griffins, Halls, Marshes, Owens and Wests had a beautiful fall day as they journeyed to Cedar Oaks RV Park in Grove, OK. While the number was low, the quality was high. The group met Wednesday evening and hosts, Lu and Barry Barratiere, helped the group plot out the activities for the campout. The Griffins showed up without their tow car and there was a story about the tow car being trapped in the garage after a garage door attacking the tow car. Thursday, the Owens, Wests, Halls and Griffins went to Miami to tour the Coleman Theatre. They had very tasty lunch at the Hartley Grill and then toured the restored Coleman Theatre. Their tour guide was a retired Football Coach and History Teacher. He did a great job of talking about all of the help and neat stories that have taken place during the renovation. The group was impressed and the word "WOW" was used quite often during the tour. After the tour they ventured over to Pitcher to see all of the gravel pile and the vacant houses as the town is being razed because of the lead pollution that has been generated for years. The Barratieres, Marshes and Callahans took the scenic drive to Seneca, MO to check out all of the craft stores. On the way back they stopped at the new Down Stream Casino at the State line and Martha Marsh lost her wallet to a pick pocket. The good news is that security called and told her they had found the wallet and only the cash was missing. It would seem that the casino is going to get your money one way or another. Friday while out sightseeing a wire shorted out on George Hall's truck and it created a lot of smoke and it looked like we were going to see how big a bonfire a Ford dually makes, but cool heads prevailed and George was able to cut the bad wire and save the day. It ended up being the wire to his auxiliary fuel tank and didn't affect anything else. Friday evening the Club went to eat at the Light House Grill on the shore of the lake and everyone enjoyed the meal and celebrated the end of the rainy season. Saturday evening the group enjoyed pot luck with hosts Barry and Lu furnishing brisket. Zane gave a great devotional on "Do unto Others" using Moses as an example of how he continued to love the people in spite of their lack of commitment and constant complaining.

Have you noticed since everyone has a camcorder these days
no one talks about seeing UFOs like they used to?

Business Meeting:

Vice President Jim Owens conducted the business meeting. The secretary's report from the September campout was approved. Lou Ann reported an account balance of $1805.82. The 50/50 pot, Lou Ann won $8.00 and Lu won $7.00 and the Club put $15 into the Christmas Charity.

The current officers presented the slate of officers for the 2010 Camping Year.

Next OUTING:

The next campout will be November 4-8, at the Elk City KOA, The campout was set for the first weekend so the group could attend the Clinton Country Jamboree. Also, on Friday we have set up a tour of the Sport Chassis plant in Clinton that does custom modifications on Freight Liners. The tour is set up for 10:30 a.m. at the factory in Clinton. This ought to be interesting for everyone since one of their modified trucks would really look good hitched to a HitchHiker. On Saturday, November 7, we have the Clinton Country Jamboree scheduled at 2:00 p.m. and the cost is $8.00. There is not an evening Gospel Show at the Clinton Country Jamboree; however, there is a 6:30 p.m. Variety Show and the cost is still $6.00. The Owens and the Wests will be hosts and provide ham for the Friday evening potluck.

Directions to Elk City/Clinton KOA:

Take the Clinton Lake Road, Exit 50 off I-40 between Elk City and Clinton. Park is on the north side of the interstate.

THE WEDDING

Jacob, age 92, and Rebecca, age 89, living in Florida, are all excited about their decision to get married. They go for a stroll to discuss the wedding, and on the way they pass a drugstore. Jacob suggests they go in.

*Jacob addresses the man behind the counter: "Are you the owner?"

The pharmacist answers, "Yes."

*Jacob: "We're about to get married. Do you sell heart medication?"

Pharmacist: "Of course we do."

*Jacob: "How about medicine for circulation?"

Pharmacist: "All kinds "

*Jacob: "Medicine for rheumatism?"

Pharmacist: "Definitely."

*Jacob: "How about suppositories?"

Pharmacist: "You bet!"

*Jacob: "Medicine for memory problems, arthritis, and Alzheimer's?"

Pharmacist: "Yes, a large variety. The works."

*Jacob: "What about vitamins, sleeping pills, Geritol, antidotes for Parkinson's disease?"

Pharmacist: "Absolutely.."

*Jacob: "Everything for heartburn and indigestion?"

Pharmacist: "We sure do."

*Jacob: "You sell wheelchairs and walkers and canes?"

Pharmacist: "All speeds and sizes."

*Jacob: "Adult diapers?"

Pharmacist: "Sure."

*Jacob: "We'd like to use this store as our Bridal Registry".

Daddy, how was I born?

A little boy goes to his father and asks 'Daddy, how was I born?'

The father answers, 'Well, son, I guess one day you will need to find out anyway!

Your Mom and I first got together in a chat room on Yahoo.

Then I set up a date via e-mail with your Mom and we met at a cyber-cafe.

We sneaked into a secluded room, and googled each other.

There your mother agreed to a download from my hard drive.

As soon as I was ready to upload, we discovered that neither one of us had used a firewall, and since it was too late to hit the delete button, nine months later a little Pop-Up appeared that said:

'You got Male!
