

OK Hitchhikers

2010
JANUARY / FEBRUARY

The News:

On January 9 the Barratieres, Boeltes, Callahans, Griffins, Halls, Harrisons, Johnsons, Marshes, Maxwells, Owens, Rileys, Thrailkills, Tuckers, Wests and our newest members, the Holidays, met at the Interurban Restaurant in Mustang. We enjoyed a hot meal on a chilly evening and it was good to see everyone. President Owens held a short meeting and announced that hosts were all set for 2010. Lou Ann reported the treasury balance of $1,807.96 and announced dues could be paid as soon as possible.

The mid-day lunch on February 13 at Kendall's worked out well and the weather was sunny and bright. There was time for visiting before and after the meal although it seemed most of the talk centered around the recent weather. Those in attendance were the Barratieres, Boeltes, Callahans, Erby Cheatham, Claytons, Griffins, Harrisons, Holidays, Marshes, Maxwells, Owenses, Rileys, Tuckers and the Finks were guests. Most everyone had the chicken fried steak and it turned out to be LARGE and then came the cinnamon rolls. Needless to say there were numerous doggie bags requested. Lou Ann reported that most dues were paid and our treasury balance is 1867.96.

A fifth grade teacher in a Christian school asked her class to look at TV commercials and see if they could use them in 20 ways to communicate ideas about God.
